Experience

- American Boat Company, LLC v. U.S., 583 F.3d 471 (7th Cir. 2009). Mr. Rollins and Mr. Tyler successfully defended a taxpayer in District Court in a highly publicized Son of BOSS tax shelter case. American Boat is the leading case for a taxpayer's use of a reasonable cause defense in a tax shelter. The case has been cited numerous times by both courts and scholarly articles. The case was appealed by the United States and Mr. Rollins and Mr. Tyler were again successful in the 7th Circuit Court of Appeals.
- Estate of David Lovins, Sr., v. Commissioner, (U.S. T.C. 2016). Mr. Tyler and Mr. Rollins, successfully resolved a substantial docketed estate valuation case. The decedent and his wife died simultaneously, leaving dozens of apartment complexes and single-family residences to his heir. IRS adjustments to the valuations reported by the estate resulted in a demand for $9.4 million from the estate. Mr. Tyler and Mr. Rollins successfully negotiated a settlement with the IRS of approximately $300,000 in taxes and interest.
