

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LITIGATION
REPRESENTATIVE CASES

CASSIDIAN V.
MICRODATA GIS, ET AL.

*Eastern District of Texas,
2:2012-cv-162*

Lead trial counsel securing jury verdict for the defendants, of invalidity on several grounds including inventorship, and non-infringement. Patent covered 9-1-1 call routing on a VOIP platform. Motions for Judgment as a Matter of Law, filed by plaintiff, denied by district court judge.

ODORSTAR V. SMM
DISTRIBUTORS, ET AL.

*Southern District of Florida,
0:2013-cv-60136*

Won summary judgment of non-infringement for defendants on patent that covered chlorine dioxide cleaning solutions. Plaintiffs appealed to the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, and in January 2015, the Federal Circuit affirmed the district court's ruling of non-infringement.

DOLORME PUBLISHING
CO. V. BRIAR TEK

*Eastern District of Virginia,
1:2013-cv-640*

Won summary judgment of invalidity for declaratory judgment plaintiff, on patents covering communication network using Iridium satellite constellation and GPS location techniques.

STRAIGHT PATH LLC V.
TELESHPERE

*Eastern District of Virginia,
1:2013-cv-937*

Obtained favorable settlement for defendant in a case involving a non-practicing entity's patents that purported to cover VOIP communications.

TELECOMMUNICATION SYSTEMS INC. V. PORTO

*Eastern District of Virginia,
3:2014-cv-111*

Represented plaintiff in a Declaratory Judgment action seeking invalidation of patents that cover location technology, settled favorably with dismissal with prejudice.

WOOSLEY V.
GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY

*Eastern District of Virginia,
1:2000-cv-504*

Presented inventor of "Allegra" in dispute with University employer over distribution of proceeds received from research that led to the patented allergy medication, resulting in favorable settlement with University and third party graduate student who claimed to be a co-inventor.