

Robin T. Silberzweig

Partner | New York

Robin T. Silberzweig is a Partner in the Real Estate Practice group of Smith, Gambrell & Russell, LLP.

Ms. Silberzweig counsels a wide range of business enterprises, from the Fortune 100 to small entrepreneurs and start-up companies. She is involved in all aspects of negotiates and closes the purchase, sale and , and leasing of commercial real property, including such as professional offices, media production facilities, retail locations and shopping center parcels, and apartment buildings., the financing of mortgage, asset-based and construction transactions, as well as the acquisition, disposition, organization and restructuring of business entities. In addition, she handles residential real estate transactions for high profile individuals and companies. She also

Her practice also includes collaborates with and supports working closely with in-house counsel, client business units groups, procurement and facilities teams, in-house counsel and private clients on risk allocations in connection with building improvement projects and operations, such as and vendor arrangements, and structuring, negotiating and preparing work letters, vendor, service and maintenance agreements, and construction-related contracts, including including general contractor, construction management, design-build consulting and design professional architects' agreements. In addition, she handles residential real estate transactions for high profile individuals and companies.

Her practice also includes the financing of mortgage, asset-based and construction transactions, as well as the acquisition, disposition, organization and restructuring of business entities.

The cooperatives and condominiums she represents benefit from her comprehensive experience handling matters that involve corporate governance, building improvements, financing, commercial tenants, adjacent land owners, the purchase and sale of apartments by trusts, estates and entities, the enforcement of building policies, and day-to-day concerns of boards and apartment owners.

Contact Information

p: 212-907-9732

f: 212-907-9832

e: rsilberzweig@sgrlaw.com

Areas of Practice

Corporate Law
Real Estate Law
Financing and Commercial Transactions
Cooperative and Condominium
Law
Construction Law
Real Estate Leasing
Commercial Lending

Bar Admissions

New York

She has a knack for fielding unusual questions that require a steady answer and sound legal judgment.

Ms. Silberzweig received her B.A. at Northwestern University and earned her J.D. from Brooklyn Law School where she served as Notes and Comments Editor of the Brooklyn Journal of International Law. Upon graduation she joined the firm of Balber Pickard Maldonado & Van Der Tuin, P.C. where she was an associate and then a partner until joining Smith, Gambrell & Russell, LLP.