

Laleh Sharifi

Partner | Atlanta

lsharifi@sgrlaw.com

Tel: 404-815-3787

Fax: 404-685-7087

Areas of Practice

Global Immigration & Mobility | Governmental Affairs | International Law | EB-5 Immigrant Investment

Ms. Sharifi's practice concentrates in the area of business immigration matters for investors, managers, executives and technical personnel. Her practice includes temporary work visas, PERM labor certifications, immigrant visas, consular representation and citizenship for foreign executives, managers and professionals, as well as EB-5 investors and entrepreneurs. Ms. Sharifi also has significant experience in representing musicians, international artists, athletes, scientists and researchers entering the U.S. for professional employment, performances and events.

Ms. Sharifi also advises multinational companies on general immigration policies, planning and I-9 compliance. Representative clients include international companies, technology firms and U.S subsidiaries of foreign corporations engaged in IT consulting, manufacturing, and the chemical and engineering industries, among others.

Ms. Sharifi frequently speaks on corporate immigration matters. She is an active member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA) and Georgia Association for Women Lawyers (GAWL).

Ms. Sharifi received her B.S. degree in Economics from the University of Wisconsin – Madison and her J.D. degree from Georgia State University. Ms. Sharifi is fluent in Farsi and is admitted to the Georgia Bar.

Admissions

Georgia

Continued

Memberships

American Immigration Lawyers Association

Georgia Association for Women Lawyers

Georgia Bar Association