

Don A. Mazursky

Partner | Atlanta

Don Mazursky is a Partner in, and the Co-Chair of, the Executive Compensation and Employee Benefits Practice of Smith, Gambrell & Russell, LLP and a Co-Leader of the Practice's Fiduciary Institute.

Mr. Mazursky's practice encompasses most areas of executive compensation and employee benefits with a particular focus on:

- The design, consulting, fiduciary, transactional and compliance aspects of 401(k) plans, pension plans, and other qualified and nonqualified deferred compensation plans;
- Advising clients on all aspects of the Affordable Care Act;
- Executive compensation and equity arrangements;
- Executive employment and severance agreements, including restrictive covenants;
- The benefits and compensation aspects of mergers and acquisitions;
- Dispute resolution with participants and governmental agencies;
- Serving as the legal advisor to numerous administrative, investment and compensation committees;
- Performing searches for retirement plan recordkeepers, actuaries, third-party administrators and auditors through request for proposal processes; and
- Negotiating vendor agreements for retirement and welfare plans.

Mr. Mazursky assists his clients by working closely with in-house counsel and compensation and benefits teams and by contributing leadership in the areas of executive compensation and employee benefits.

Before joining Smith, Gambrell & Russell, Mr. Mazursky was the head of the executive and compensation practice at another Atlanta law firm and then was the founder and managing member of the largest law firm in the Southeast that specialized in executive compensation and employee benefits. That firm is now part of Smith, Gambrell & Russell's executive compensation and employee benefits group.
