

Amy E. Buice

Associate | Atlanta

Amy Buice is an Associate in the Litigation Practice of Smith, Gambrell & Russell, LLP.

Ms. Buice's practice focuses on serving the diverse needs of clients in litigation and trial practice.

Ms. Buice earned her B.A. in History at Sewanee: The University of the South. While at Sewanee, she served as a judicial intern for the Honorable David C. Norton, Judge of the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina. Her freshman year, she won the Freshman Prize in Historical Writing for her essay chosen for publication in the department's undergraduate journal. Senior year, she was awarded the Cushman Scholarship for excellence in History. She graduated from Sewanee summa cum laude and was inducted into Phi Beta Kappa.

Ms. Buice earned her J.D. degree, cum laude, from the University of Georgia. While in law school, Ms. Buice competed on the moot court team, where she placed as finalist at the 2018 William B. Spong National Moot Court Competition. Her 1L year, she competed in and won the 1L Beard First-Year Closing Argument Competition. She also served as a Notes Editor on the Georgia Journal of International and Comparative Law. She served as a judicial intern for the Honorable Lawton Stephens, Judge of the Athens-Clarke County Superior Court.

Contact

p: 404-815-3750

f: 404-685-7050

e: abuice@sgrlaw.com

Areas of Practice

Litigation

Antitrust and Trade Regulation

Admissions

Georgia

Memberships

State Bar of Georgia, Antitrust
Section