
Michael is a Partner in the Finance, Banking, and Restructuring Practice of Smith, Gambrell & Russell, LLP

Mr. Holbein advises to financially distressed businesses and individuals in debt restructuring, bankruptcy, and bankruptcy alternatives. He also represents secured and unsecured creditors in all aspects of bankruptcy cases and out-of-court restructuring. Mr. Holbein is a seasoned litigator with significant experience at both the state and federal trial and appellate levels, prosecuting and defending complex, seven- and eight-figure fraudulent-transfer and preference claims, lien-avoidance litigation, dischargeability lawsuits, and contempt actions for violations of the automatic stay and discharge injunction.

Mr. Holbein earned his law degree with honors from the University of Florida Frederic G. Levin College of Law and graduated cum laude with a degree in English Literature from the Honors Program at Stetson University.

Contact

p: 404-815-3607

f: 404-685-6907

e: mholbein@sgrlaw.com

Areas of Practice

Bankruptcy/Creditor's Rights

Commercial Lending

Special Assets

Bar Admissions

Georgia

