

Aleksandra Puścińska

Senior Associate | London

apuscinska@sgrlaw.com

Tel: +44 (0)20 7084 9259

Fax: 404-685-7159

Areas of Practice

Corporate Law | Global Transport Practice

Aleksandra Puścińska is a Senior Associate in the Corporate Practice and member of the Global Transport Practice at Smith Gambrell Russell. Ms. Puścińska's practice involves acting for leasing companies, airlines and other aviation industry participants in aviation transactions, including aircraft and engine acquisition, finance and leasing. She has a broad experience advising clients on regulatory matters related to commercial and business aviation.

Ms. Puścińska earned her Law with European Legal Studies LL.B. from King's College London, U.K. and spent one year of her undergraduate degree studying law abroad at Universiteit Leiden, the Netherlands. She holds a Master's Degree (LL.M.) in Air and Space Law from McGill University in Canada, where she was the recipient of the Boeing Fellowship in Air and Space Law.

Bar Admissions

New York

Education

Undergraduate

King's College London (United Kingdom)

Master's

Institute of Air & Space Law, McGill University (Canada)

Speeches & Publications

- Panelist, "Flyers' Rights: What Every Traveler Should Know (CLE)" 2018 ABA Annual Meeting, YLD Committee on Air & Space Law, Chicago, Illinois.
- Co-author, "Wet lessors not liable to passengers whose flights are delayed", Regional International, the Official Magazine of ERA, September/October 2018 issue.