

Katherine L. D'Ambrosio

Associate | Atlanta

kdambrosio@sgrlaw.com

Tel: 404-815-3507

Fax: 404-685-6807

Areas of Practice

Litigation / Trial Practice | Appellate Practice | Class Action Litigation

Katherine (Kadie) D'Ambrosio is a litigation associate at Smith Gambrell. She represents businesses and individuals in complex civil litigation in federal and state courts.

Before joining the firm, Kadie was an associate at Rogers & Hardin and clerked for Judge Beverly B. Martin of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit and Justice Walter L. Carpeneti of the Alaska Supreme Court. Kadie was a Yale Public Interest Fellow at the Georgia Advocacy Office, where she represented people with disabilities in federal court. Kadie received her J.D. from Yale Law School and her B.A. from Wesleyan University.

Experience

- Co-counsel in the defense of two federal class actions and a state court action alleging contamination of municipal water supplies through the discharge of certain chemicals.
- Represented bank in appellate litigation concerning enforceability of class action litigation waivers
- Member of team representing financial company in litigation and government investigation concerning alleged unfair business practices
- Representation of software companies in implementation and software disputes and litigation, including contract disputes and business torts
- Represented construction company in prosecution of claims for breach of fiduciary duty and misappropriation of trade secrets

Continued

- Represented national law firm in suit brought against the firm by the City of Atlanta seeking declaratory, injunctive, and monetary relief
- Represented special committee of public company Board of Directors in internal investigation of whether officers and directors engaged in corporate misconduct
- Represented individuals in prosecuting claims under the Medicaid Act in federal court, including obtaining affirmance of attorneys' fee award in the Eleventh Circuit
- Represented non-profit in litigation concerning its federal authority to conduct investigations and access records of individuals with disabilities

Admissions

New York

Georgia