William E. Russell is a Partner in the Corporate Practice of Smith, Gambrell & Russell, LLP and serves as the Co-Managing Partner of the Chicago office. Mr. Russell was previously the Co-Managing Partner of Freeborn & Peters, which combined with SGR in 2023.

Mr. Russell advises closely held businesses and professionals on business and tax matters. His practice consists of corporate transactions and business consulting, advanced estate planning and probate, and asset protection.

As to business matters, Mr. Russell has handled the purchase and sale of private equity businesses and joint ventures. He has significant experience in the structuring of business entities, including limited liability companies, partnerships, S corporations, buy-sell agreements, deferred compensation arrangements, and general corporate transactional agreements. He has also advised business owners in the resolution of ownership and governance controversies.

Mr. Russell's experience in advanced estate planning includes the restructuring of businesses or real estate to minimize estate taxes, family partnerships, grantor annuity trusts, qualified personal residence trusts, charitable trusts, trusts for children, insurance trusts, generation-skipping trusts, and retirement distribution planning as well as basic estate planning for all individuals. His practice also includes estate administration and post-mortem planning to minimize taxes.

Mr. Russell advises business owners on asset protection and workout matters, with particular emphasis on attributes of limited liability companies and limited partnerships. He represents real estate investors and developers in the financing and development of both commercial and residential properties, including specialized mezzanine financing and the structuring of real estate investment and development entities.
