Erin N. Spritzer is a Partner in the White Collar, Government & Internal Investigations practice of Smith, Gambrell & Russell, LLP.

Ms. Spritzer is a seasoned trial lawyer with nearly a decade of experience as an Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) in the Middle District of Georgia and the Northern District of Georgia. As an AUSA, she prosecuted complex, high-stakes cases involving financial fraud, racketeering, violent crime, child exploitation, public corruption, and health care fraud. She tried numerous jury trials to verdict, including two multi-defendant RICO trials, and argued before the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals. Recognized for her courtroom skills and managing large-scale investigations, she has earned multiple honors, including the Assistant Attorney General Award, OCDETF Director's Award, and commendations from the FBI and U.S. Attorney's Office.

Ms. Spritzer served internationally as a U.S. Department of Justice legal advisor in Moldova, mentoring prosecutors on anti-corruption efforts. She also has significant prior experience in private practice defending clients in white collar and civil matters. In addition to her legal practice, she is a faculty member of Emory Law School's Trial Techniques Program and an active leader in professional and community organizations. Ms. Spritzer earned her J.D. from Emory University School of Law and her B.A. from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.
