Areas of Practice

Litigation / Trial Practice

Camille Campbell is an Associate in the Litigation Practice of Smith, Gambrell & Russell, LLP.

Camille first joined the firm as a Summer Associate, then later as a Law Clerk, where she honed her skills in legal research, motion practice, and drafting opinion letters across diverse practice areas. Camille now serves as an associate and contributes to a broad range of matters with experience spanning intellectual property, labor and employment, construction, and commercial litigation.

Camille earned her J.D. from Fordham University School of Law, where she served on the Fordham Law Moot Court Board as a Kaufman Associate Editor and was a member of the Fordham International Law Journal. She also participated in the Fashion Law Society, serving as its Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Chair.

During law school, Camille gained judicial experience as a Judicial Intern to the Honorable Kiyo Matsumoto of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York and worked as a Legal Intern with Lincoln Square Legal Services, representing clients in Manhattan Criminal Court and assisting on clemency matters.
