Areas of Practice

Litigation

Mitch Ackal is a partner in the Litigation Practice of Smith, Gambrell & Russell, LLP.

Mr. Ackal represents clients in a wide range of commercial and business disputes across Texas and nationwide. He handles litigation in state and federal courts, arbitration, and appeals, with a focus on energy, contract disputes, business divorces, franchise conflicts, and UCC cases.

As national litigation counsel for a global plastics distributor, Mr. Ackal advises on complex litigation and business issues, including employment, trade secrets, restrictive covenants, and product liability. Known for his strategic approach and ability to simplify complex issues, he is a trusted advisor for businesses navigating risk.

A former Rice University baseball player and member of its 1999 College World Series team, Mitch brings competitive drive and discipline to every case.
